

SECTION 4
EIGHT PAGES

The Sun.

PICTORIAL
MAGAZINE

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, MARCH 11, 1917.
Copyright, 1917, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

PORTRAITS OF MEN IN THE PUBLIC EYE

The new Director of the Mint, Ray Baker, who was formerly secretary to the American Embassy at Petrograd, Russia.

Photo copyright by G. V. Burk.

Photo copyright by Edmonson, from Kadel & Herbert, New York.

THE REAL JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER. THIS CHARACTERISTIC PORTRAIT WAS REPRODUCED FROM HIS LATEST PHOTOGRAPH. IT SHOWS MR. ROCKEFELLER AS HIS FAMILY AND HIS FRIENDS KNOW HIM.

Thomas Gedney Patten, named by President Wilson as New York's new Postmaster. Mr. Patten's term as Congressman has just expired.

Photo by Pirie MacDonald, New York.

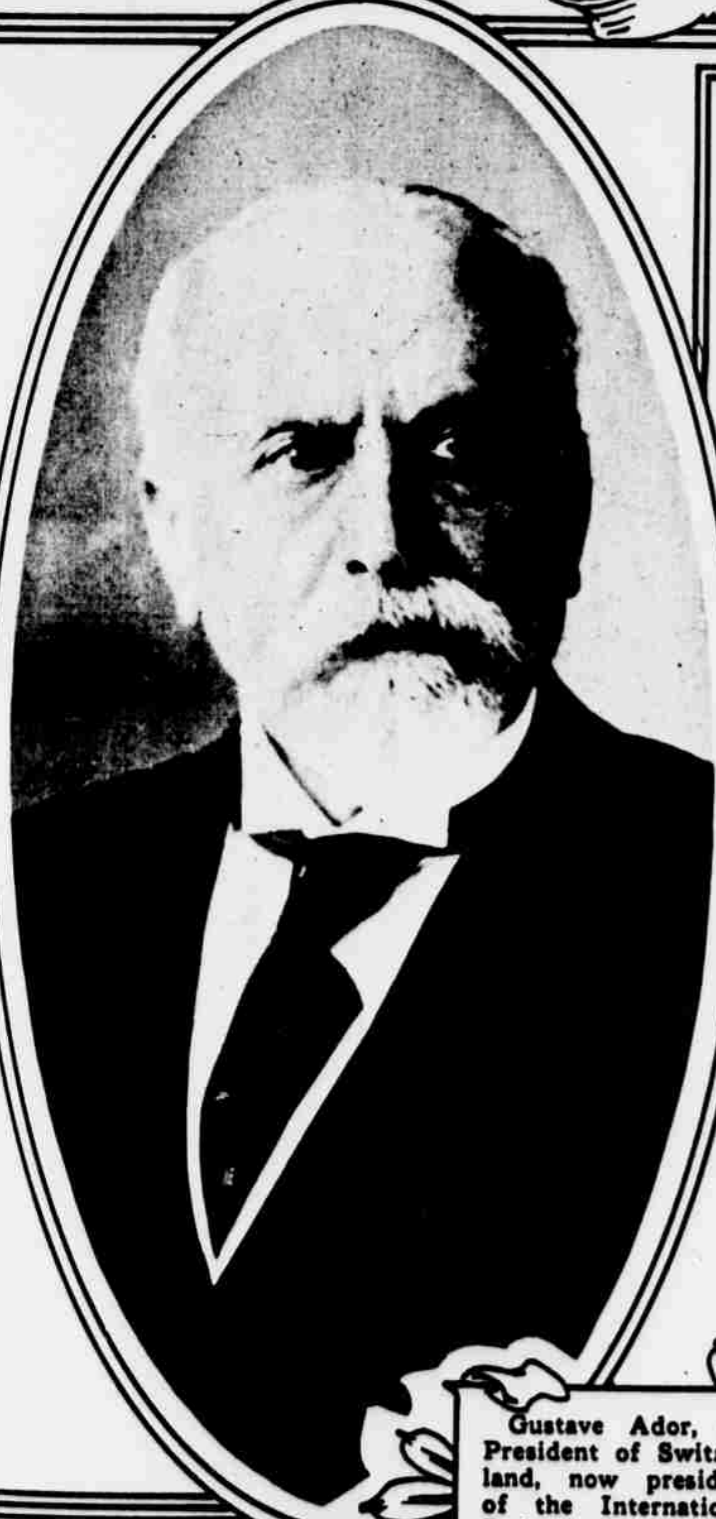

Photo by Press Illustrating Service, Inc.

Gustave Ador, ex-President of Switzerland, now president of the International Red Cross.

Above—
Li Yuan Hung,
President of the Chinese Republic, who succeeded Yuan Shi-k'ai.

At right—Feng Kuo Chang, Vice-President of China.

Photo by Central News Photo Service.

Photo by Press Illustrating Service.

Edward E. Loomis, recently elected president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company.

Photo by Pach, New York